

Old Mandeville Historic Association
Historic Structure Registry and Site Plaque Application

The Intent of this registry is to promote appreciation of our cultural and architectural heritage through identification of historic structures, resulting in an accurate guide to our past through our surviving buildings.

The historic registry site plaque is the 'on the street' visual component and is at the very heart of the registry making history evident and accessible. A plaque is not required to be included in the registry.

"There may have been a time when preservation was about saving an old building here and there, but those times are gone. Preservation is the business of saving communities and the values they embody."
